SATURDAY NIGHT'S HOLDUP A STARTER

YOUTHS EXPECTED TO OUT-CLASS YOUNG MEN, KID CURRY AND THE JAMES BOYS.

Great Falls, Mont., May 31.—The holding up of the Great Northern train No. 240, bound from Shelby to Great Falls, Saturday evening about 10:30 o'clock, at the stock yards about a mile and a half from this city, was the work of three boys, the oldest of whom was not more than 17 years, who now occupy cells in the city jail.

A fourth youth, who admits having assisted in planning the holdup, but who was prevented by circumstances from being present and taking part, is also a prisoner. The quartet have made a complete confession to the police and the officers are inclined to believe their story that they were the only ones implicated.

The names of the four boys are: Har-bert Hatch, aged 15; William Rame, 17; Harry Rheams, 15, and George C. Awell, 18 years of age.

William Dempsey, the Augusta rancher who was shot in the left leg while trying to escape from the train, was more badly injured than was at first thought and he will probably require the limb.

Youngest Was the Leader.
According to the story told by J-fall, Rheams and Cresswell, the holdup was planned and carried out under the generalship of Hatch, the youngest of the four, who is said to have turned the switch, ordered the engineer to back up and to have gone through the passenger coaches with the conductor, forcing the latter at the point of a gun to collect money from the passengers.

According to the other boys it was also Hatch who shot Dempsey and shot at Conductor Jack Hayes, sending a bullet through Hayes' left sleeve.

Wanted to Tackle Another Train.
Rheams states that Hatch, after they had left the scene of the holdup, proposed that they cross Sun river to the Montana Central line and hold up passenger train No. 236 from Butte, which was due in two or three hours.

Because he demurred, Rheams states, Hatch drew his revolver and threatened to kill him.

He was dissuaded from the second train robbery by the two youths who were with him.

The stories told by the boys, with the exception of Hatch, agree in the main details. They state that the holdup was planned two nights before, it being decided to rob the train on the first dark night.

Victims of "Yellow" Trash.
The boys had been reading trashy magazines and they were devoted of emulating the examples of the Younger Brothers, Kid Curry and McDonald. As they were unable to get hold of any dynamite or nitroglycerin, however, they did not know how to use it, they determined to tackle a train without any express and get their money from the passengers, and if they were successful to go after a mail train later in the summer.

WIFE NEARLY KILLED.

Barney Oldfield Meets With Auto Accident.

Lowell, Mass., May 31.—While driving a car on the boulevard northwest of the city, Barney Oldfield, the automobile racer, suffered an accident tonight, the car being overturned and Mrs. Oldfield badly injured, while another occupant, Joseph O'Brien of Boston, suffered an ankle fracture.

Oldfield and Albert Allen of Hartford, Conn., and Dr. Park of Andover, Mass., who were also in the car, escaped with slight bruises.

The car, which was a heavy six-horse power machine, eked at a sharp curve and was overturned. Mrs.
Oldfield was taken to the hospital here, suffering from a gash over the eye and a spinal injury.

was recently ill of scarlet fever, is requested to call at The Herald office, where he will receive important information. Any information regarding the whereabouts of Mr. Gaines will be appreciated.

States consular agent at Nuevitas, was

RUMOR THAT RED STAR LINER HAS GONE TO BOTTOM

Vaderland, With 1,600 Passengers Aboard, Wrecked in the North Sea.

STEAMER BOUND FROM ANTWERP TO NEW YORK

NEWS OF THE VESSEL AWAITED WITH GREAT ANXIETY ON BOTH CONTINENTS.

Paris, May 31.—A special dispatch to the Petit Journal from Brussels said that it was reported that the Red Star steamer Vaderland has been wrecked in the North Sea in a dense fog. There are 1,600 passengers aboard.

Lloyds does not confirm this news, which, however, comes from what is usually considered a most reliable source.
There were three collisions in the North Sea today and passengers on the Dover-Ostend mail declare that they saw the vessel cast away on the Goodwin sands.

Several Collisions.
Dover, May 31.—A heavy fog in the channel tonight, which has lasted for twenty-four hours, has been responsible for several collisions. The British steamer Queenswood was towed into the harbor, having been seriously damaged in a collision with the Spanish steamer Ber-mo. Before she could be got to her moorings the Queenswood sank in the harbor.

The Bermo arrived leaking badly. A portion of the crew of the steamer Loan-da, from Hamburg for West Africa, who landed here tonight, report being in collision with an unknown steamer. The steamer Loanda is said to be in bad condition, and her captain and the remainder of the crew are standing by, awaiting assistance.

The Red Star steamer Vaderland was due to sail from Antwerp for New York, May 30. According to schedule, she would have reached Dover on Sunday, from which port she would be reported on her arrival. Up to a late hour Sunday night she had not been reported.

No News in New York.
New York, May 31.—No official confirmation could be obtained tonight in this city of the report of the wrecking of the Red Star steamship Vaderland in the North Sea and, so far as could be learned, no official reports had been received by the company's offices in this city as to the reported accident. The offices of the International Mercantile Marine, which controls the Red Star line, and the offices of the Red Star Line company, were closed, so that information concerning the whereabouts of the Vaderland was unobtainable.

UNPRECEDENTED RUSH.

Salmon River Land Opening a Pronounced Success.

Twin Falls, Ida., May 31.—When the registration books for the Salmon river land opening, which occurs at Twin Falls tomorrow, closed at 9 o'clock tonight, 4,029 names were enrolled and $1,500,000 in certified checks were in the hands of the company. The registration calls for 500, 000 acres of land and as only 80,000 acres are to be opened to entry there will be a surplus of 420,000 acres. It is the most phenomenal land opening in America.

Crowds continue to pour into town by regular and special trains. The railroad yards are filled with Pullmans and there with dining cars, naturally relieve the congestion at the hotels.

There has been heavy downpour of rain for the past twenty-four hours, and the indications now are that the drawing tomorrow will be attended with much discomfort owing to the bad weather.

VISITED FALLIERES.

Paris, May 31.—President Fallieres yesterday received in special audience Levi P. Morton of New York and Representatives of the Elysée palace accompanied by the American ambassador, Henry White. President Fallieres and Mr. Morton related their friendly associations at the time Mr. Morton was minister to France.

ASYLUM COMMENCEMENT.

Ogden, May 31.—Commencement exercises of the state asylum for the deaf and blind will be held in the gymnasium of that institution at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. The program will consist of addresses, essays and music. The presentation of diplomas will be made by Miss Maud May Babcock, Superintendent of Public Instruction. A. C. Nelson will attend the exercises and will deliver an address.

CLEVELAND AT HOME ONCE MORE

Former President Able to Travel Over Jersey Roads in an Auto.

Lakewood, N. J., May 31.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who has been confined to the Lakewood hotel for two months with an attack of rheumatic gout and acute indigestion, has sufficiently recovered from his illness to leave here today for his home in Princeton. The trip was made in John Hays Hammond's large touring car. Mr. Cleveland was accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and Dr. G. Rowe Rockwood, who has been alternating with Dr. Joseph T. Bryant, the family physician, in caring for the patient.

The departure did not attract general attention, only a few intimate friends of the family, residents of Lakewood, being at the hotel when the start was made.

Walked Unaided to Auto.
Mr. Cleveland left his room and unaided descended the stairs for the first time in seven weeks. Leaning on a cane, he walked to the door of the hotel, where he greeted the friends who had come to him his Godspeed, and said good-bye to the few employees who have remained since the hotel closed.

Without further pause he stepped into the waiting motor car, which sped away on its three-hour journey.

Mrs. Cleveland arrived here late last night from Tamworth, N. H., where she had gone to take the Cleveland children to her summer home.

Manager Becker of the Lakewood hotel said tonight that Mr. Cleveland, when he left today, looked as well as he did the day of his arrival here, and needed no help whatever in getting about.

Princeton, N. J., May 31.—Former President Grover Cleveland, who had been ill at Lakewood for some time, was brought to his home here this evening. The journey was made slowly, and members of the family said that Mr. Cleveland stood firmly on his feet when he arrived here.

Inquiry at the house as to when Mr.
Cleveland will leave for his summer home in New Hampshire brought the response that no time had been set for his departure.

NEW CASES OF PLAGUE.

Port of La Guaira, Venezuela, Closed to Commerce.

Caracas, May 28.—Notwithstanding President Castro's decree of May 23, in which it was set forth that because of the absence of any new cases of bubonic plague at La Guaira the port would be opened to traffic with the interior on May 25, great alarm is felt here for fear of the spread of the disease. The plague still continues at La Guaira, several cases being reported daily.

Witnessed by 1,000 Persons.

Wood made his ascension at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of a thousand persons. As the balloon rose, Wood unfolded an American flag, which he waved to the people below.

Near Nutley the balloon had risen to a height estimated at 2,000 feet, and Wood descended by means of a rope. The parachute opened and then with moderate speed continued the descent.

Waved His Farewell.

Nearing the earth, Wood said that he would probably fall in the Passaic river and, waving his flag as a last salute, he prepared for a plunge into the river. It was at this moment while the parachute was only a hundred feet above the river, that a puff of air caught the floating flag and wrapped it around Wood's legs.

The aeronaut struggled to free himself from its enveloping folds, but failed, and with his limbs still bound by the flag Wood plunged into the water. He arose to the surface and cried for help, but before the spectators could come to his aid, Wood sank and was drowned.

GREAT INTEREST IN THE ELECTION WILL OCCUR IN OREGON TODAY

Reasonably Certain That a Republican Legislature Will Be Chosen, Which Will Elect Democratic Senator.

Portland, Ore., May 31.—Each expressing confidence that when the ballots are counted he will be the popular choice for United States senator of Oregon, Governor E. Chamberlain, Democrat, and Judge Henry M. Calk, Republican, tonight are resting after an arduous campaign of six weeks, and awaiting the morrow's election.

The elections in Oregon, which once in four years attract national attention because they occur five months before the presidential election, are this year more interesting because of the anomalous situation in which the next legislature may find itself.

Signers of "Statement No. 1."
The next legislature will, it is reasonably certain, be Republican. Of these Republicans the primaries of last April developed that about forty, including two hold-over members, will be certainly be signers of "Statement No.
1," a pre-election pledge morally ob-ligating the legislature to vote for the candidate for United States senator receiving the greater popular vote tomorrow.

In accordance with these paraphrases, the Republican candidates for the legislature have since the primaries aligned themselves in the "Statement No. 1" column.

There being little doubt that the action of the next legislature will be governed by Republican signers of "State-

FELL HELPLESS IN PASSAIC RIVER

Youthful Aeronaut Lost His Life by Getting Tangled Up in Flag.

New York, May 31.—Entangled in the folds of a large American flag, which he had waved as he made a parachute drop of 2,000 feet from a balloon at Hillside park, near Passaic, N. J., late today, Frederick L. Wood, an 18-year-old aerionaut of New Haven, Conn., fell helpless in the Passaic river, and was drowned.
Up to a late hour tonight the body had not been recovered.

WOMAN SLAIN IN HOUSE OF LORD

Mrs. E. H. Orvis Shot and Killed in Church at Oakfield, Wis.

Oakfield, Wis., May 31.—While attending services at the Methodist church this morning, Grant Poole, aged 35 years, shot and killed Mrs. E. H.
Orvis, a leading resident of the village.
Rev. Sabin Halsey had completed the services and had gone to the vestibule door to shake hands with the members of the congregation as they left the church. Poole occupied a pew in the church directly in front of Mrs. Orvis, and followed her to the door. Mrs.
Orvis was about to shake hands with Mr. Halsey when Poole, pulled a revolver, firing three shots in rapid succession, one bullet entering the heart, causing instant death. Mrs. Orvis fell into the arms of her husband.

Mr. Halsey asked the congregation to remain and offer prayer for the dying woman. The congregation was, however, panic-stricken and fled from the church in haste. The pastor remained and prayed over the body.

It is said that Mr. and Mrs. Orvis objected to Poole's attentions to their daughter, and that this was the cause of the shooting.

ROYAL VISITORS.

Earlin, May 31.—King Gustave of Sweden and the queen arrived here this afternoon and were met by the emperor and other members of the royal family.
The route to the castle was lined with troops, and the royal visitors were greeted enthusiastically all along the way.

ALDRICH SO FAR RUNS THE WORKS

Meeting of the Recently Appointed Commission to Study Currency.

SUB-COMMITTEE SELECTED

RHODE ISLAND SENATOR HEADS
THE LIST.

Washington, May 31.—The currency commission appointed yesterday by Vice President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon under terms of the Aldrich-Vreeland bill held its first meeting today. While the meeting was only for the purpose of organization, there was a general discussion of plans, and it was stated that if the outline submitted by Senator Aldrich is perfected by the work of the commission the country will be given the benefit of such a thorough investigation and complete an exposition of currency and banking as it has never before received.

Aldrich Chairman.
The commission organized by electing Senator Aldrich chairman and Representative Vreeland vice chairman, thus recognizing in the two executive officers the co-authors of the law under which the commission was appointed. Arthur Shelton, clerk of the senate committee on finance, was chosen secretary of the commission, and it was agreed that the house members should be permitted to designate an assistant secretary, but he was not named today. The meeting was held today because of the necessity felt by some of the members of getting away from the city tomorrow.

In Aldrich's Room.
It took place in Senator Aldrich's committee room, and continued about two hours, during which time there was an informal discussion of the work that should be done. Senator Aldrich, who becomes the chairman of the commission, expressed the opinion that the country would expect from the organization a very complete presentation of the financial subject, based upon investigation to be made not only in the United States, but also in the financial centers of Europe, and no dissenting voice was heard in the entire membership of eighteen representatives and senators.

Aldrich Heads Sub-Committee.

It was the general opinion that the commission would continue its existence for at least three or four years, and the opinion was expressed that the investigation would prove as important for this country as did that of the old bullion commission for Great Britain. The discussion today resulted in the appointment of a committee of six to formulate a plan of action, and as first appointed, the committee consisted of Senators Aldrich, Hale and Teller and Representatives Vreeland, Burton and Padgett. Senator Teller subsequently declined the submission of the committee, and Senator Bailey was substituted in his place. The committee will meet in New York about the middle of June and will prepare its plans to be presented at a meeting of the full commission to be held at some date in the month of July.

SULTAN LOSING HIS CROWN

Chance of Abd-el-Aziz Regaining Power in Morocco Considered Hopeless.

Paris, May 31.—The government this week will define before the French parliament its position relative to the evacuation of the Chaouia district in Morocco by publishing its instruction to General D'Amade, the commander of the French forces in Morocco, who has been recently communicated to the powers. These provide for the gradual withdrawal of the French troops and their replacement by a native Moroccan contingent as rapidly as they can be organized.

So far as the situation regarding the two sultans is concerned, France intends to await developments. The chances of Abd-el-Aziz, the sultan of record, to retain his influence are almost hopeless, but it is thought that there might be a shift in fortune. If, however, Mulai Hafid, the so-called sultan of the south, enters Morocco, which is the intention of Tangier, thus becoming de facto sultan, France will notify the signatory powers of the Algeiras conference of the difficult diplomatic situation which will then be created unless the powers act in concert.

Mulai Hafid already has offered to accept the annulations of some Algeiras act, but anxiety here exists that Germany may provoke trouble.

BACK FROM THE SOUND.

San Francisco, May 31.—The first division of the Atlantic fleet, under Rear Admiral Sperry, consisting of the Connecticut, Kansas, Vermont and Louisiana, returned here today from Taconoma and dropped anchor in man-o'- war bay by the side of the Maine. The ships were accompanied by the hospital ship Relief. The Minnesota also came in later from Bremerton.

WARSHIPS TO MEET.

Sydney, N. S. W., May 31.—It has been decided that the British ships Cambrian and Prometheus shall meet the American fleet at Suva, Fiji Islands. The cruiser Powerful will meet the American fleet at Auckland.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE WILL HUSTLE NOW THAT CONGRESS HAS ADJOURNED

Washington, May 31.—The wood pulp and print paper investigating committee of the house, which presented a preliminary report to that body several days ago, will continue its investigations during the recess of congress. It is the purpose of Chairman Mann to gather a great deal of statistical information from the census bureau and the department of labor during the coming summer. Sub-committees also will be appointed to visit paper mills in different sections of the country and take testimony as to the conditions prevailing at them, and it is possible that

BRUTAL AND MYSTERIOUS PARIS MURDER

Celebrated Painter, Adolphe Steinheil, and His Mother-in-Law Strangled.

WIFE FOUND GAGGED AND BOUND TO A BED

HOUSE RANSACKED AND MANY VALUABLES TAKEN—POLICE HAVE SLIGHT CLUE.

Paris, May 31.—A sensation has been caused in the art world here by the brutal murder of the distinguished painter, Adolphe Steinheil, and his mother-in-law, who were found strangled this morning in the former's residence in the Rue de Vaugirard, which joins the studio of Seymour Thomas, the American portrait painter.

The house was ransacked of everything of value. M. Steinheil's wife, who was found gagged and bound to a bed, declares that the crime was committed by two men and a woman. The latter she believes she recognized as a model who was employed by her husband.

Boldness of Murderers.
Aside from the brutality of the crime, a feature of the affair is the almost inconceivable audacity with which it was perpetrated. The artist's house is situated close to a large printing works where work is proceeding all night. An almost constant stream of workmen are coming and going all the time.

The discovery was made by a man servant, who arose at 6 o'clock in the morning to prepare breakfast. Hearing groans coming from Mme. Steinheil's sleeping apartment, he entered, and found her lying bound hand and foot on the Rue de Vaugirard, which she had succeeded in ejecting from her mouth, lay on the floor. A thin cord was around her throat.

Strangled to Death.
In the passage he found the painter dead. He was resting on his knees, and the body bent backward. To them the strangled by a whip cord similar to that around his wife's neck; his features were blackened and his limbs were already stiff.

In another bedroom was the dead body of Mme. Steinheil's mother, Mme. Japin.
She also had been strangled, and the body was fastened to the bed.

Every room in the house had been ransacked, and a large number of valuables stolen.

The servant at once gave the alarm, and Chief Detective Hamard and other police officials were soon at the spot. To them the wife who had so miraculously escaped death related in broken accents what she recollected of the tragedy.

Sprung Upon Her Like Wild Beasts.
She declared that at about 1 o'clock in the morning she had been awakened by the entrance of two men and a woman, who sprang upon her like wild beasts and tied her to the bed. Evidently they had mistaken her for a stranger. Her sixteen-year-old daughter, who was absent in the country, as one of the men said:

"Your father had an exhibition sale of pictures; tell us where the money is."

She pointed to a drawer in the bureau, and, meanwhile, the detectives heard the murderers say:

"Kill her quick. Why are you sparing her?"

Mme. Steinheil struck by the voice, sent a cry of terror and seemed to recognize her as one of her husband's models.

Beyond this statement the police have no clue to the murderers and no arrests had been made up to midnight. They believe that the murderers entered the house by means of false keys.

Italian Under Arrest.
It was rumored late tonight that the police had made an arrest of an Italian in the Pere la Chaise quarter as one of the assassins.

The murderers evidently were well acquainted with the affairs of the Steinheil family, which had planned to leave for the country, but changed only at the last moment.

Mme. Steinheil's injuries are slight, but she is suffering from a very severe nervous shock. Her husband, who was a cries and struggles of her mother while lying bound and helpless.

She states that the assassins got $1-00 in money and jewels valued at about $3,500. The man servant who slept in a room at the top of the house declares that he heard nothing during the night.

Came of Noted Family.

Adolphe Steinheil was the son of the celebrated genre and portrait painter, Louis Charles Auguste Steinheil, who died in Paris in 1885. The younger Stein-heil was about 50 years of age and was born in Paris. He was a grand nephew of Meissonier. He had painted portraits of a host of distinguished men, including Francois Felix Faure, president of France, who has his intimate friend.

AUTO ACCIDENT.

Bakersfield, Cal., May 31.—An automobile touring car, driven by Henry Dool of Maricopa, while running into this city today at twenty miles an hour, turned a complete somersault and injured every one of the six occupants.

Mrs. Henry Dool suffered a broken thigh. The other five were bruised and lacerated.

The left wheel snapped off at the axle, precipitating the car to the ground, where it rebounded and turned.

FATALLY INJURED.

Los Angeles, May
